NATIONAL ACADEMY OF CERTIFIED CARE MANAGERS

CONTINUING EDUCATION PROVIDER APPROVAL PROCESS

The mission of the National Academy of Certified Care Managers is to support a high level of competence in the practice of care management. NACCM believes in strengthening the education and training of care managers, encouraging participation in continuing education and professional development, and protecting and empowering consumers of care management through consumer education.

Care Managers, Certified (CMC) must renew their certification every three years. The renewal criteria include earning 45 contact hours of continuing education related to care management practice. NACCM does accept contact hours from other professional CE providers and provides an approval process for CE providers interested in offering programs for CMCs.

This application is to become an NACCM CMC Continuing Education approved provider. To apply for CE approval for a single event, please see Appendix B.

Provider Approval Criteria

Educational offerings must:

1. Be no less than one clock hour in duration. A clock hour is 60 minutes of instruction time and does not include breaks, meals, social hours, welcomes or introductions.
2. Include clearly stated and measurable learning objectives that,
3. Maintain or advance the skills and/or knowledge of care managers, and address the content domains identified as the knowledge base needed by qualified care managers (see pages 5 - 6).
4. Allow sufficient time to present the topic in depth and detail for learners to meet the learning objectives.
5. Use presenters having sufficient knowledge of the topic area to meet the learning objectives.

CE providers must:

1. Provide participants with a vehicle to evaluate content, ability to meet learning objectives, environment, and speaker efficacy.
2. Provide each participant who completes a program with a certificate verifying that the program was completed. The certificate shall contain the provider's name and number, title of program, date of program, location, instructor, and number of contact hours.

3. Have a record keeping system for CE programs
4. Retain an attendance record with the signature of the participants for at least five years.
5. Retain all presentation documents for five years, including program title, description, learning objectives, presenter qualifications, location, date, number of contact hours, name and number of participants, participant evaluations, and certificates issued.
6. Have on record a description of how evaluation information is used to evaluate program quality and to plan future programs.
7. Maintain procedures for the identification of program topics, evaluation of content accuracy, and presenter performance.

NACCM reserves the right to audit providers' records at any time with 30 day notice.

Application Fees

The initial application fee is $500 and this includes approval of submitted programs, professional conferences, webinars and online courses that meet the NACCM criteria for continuing education (as stated on page 1).

Once the initial application is approved, providers seeking approval for additional programs/conferences need only submit Sections 1 and 5 of the application and a $50 fee.

Provider approval status is renewed every three years. Providers must submit a new application updating all their organizational information and educational programs.

If a provider is seeking CE approval for a single offering, please see Appendix B.
